HAPPYTOWN SHOWDOWN

HappyTown Showdown isn't just a game show, it's a full-on comedy spectacle. From the second the lights come up, Brett leads a fast-paced, laugh-out-loud show packed with onstage challenges, big-screen interactive games, and crowd-wide chaos where everyone becomes part of the show. Challenges like... "What Did You Say?", where the entire audience wildly imitates what they see on the big screen, while the poor contestants on stage try to guess the answers through tears of laughter... Or the Spinning Donut Challenge, yes, that's a thing... Or Brett diving into the crowd for 20-Second Showdowns - lightning-fast challenges that have the whole room on their feet, cheering, laughing, and losing their minds in pure ridiculous joy. All while Brett showers the audience with prizes galore!!! Yes, it's as much fun as you think it is.

HAPPYTOWN TRIVIA

This isn't your average trivia night, this is HappyTown Trivia, where hilarious team competition meets spontaneous audience chaos. Yes, there's real trivia. Yes, it's actually challenging. And yes, it gets completely derailed in the best possible way. On the big screen, teams face off in fast-paced rounds filled with clever questions, but just when you think it's all going smoothly, Brett throws in a "Trivia Timeout". Suddenly he's running all over the room, calling out someone in Row 3 for a bonus challenge, from hysterical awful impressions to the whole room cheering on a dance off, anything can happen. It's smart. It's silly. It's totally unpredictable. And the best part? We can also add trivia about your company, industry, or inside jokes, so your team feels seen, celebrated, and slightly roasted (with love).

THE BALLYHOO BINGO SHOW

Forget what you think you know about bingo. This isn't a sleepy game with someone quietly muttering "B12" into a mic. The Ballyhoo Bingo Show is an all-out bingo bonanza, a high-octane comedy experience where every round brings something new, loud, and absolutely ridiculous. You'll start with classic bingo rounds (played every which way imaginable), hosted by Brett as your fast-talking, joke-slinging master of ceremonies. But then, the horn blows. And it's time for a Bingo Breakout - a full-tilt, high-energy mini-challenge where Brett pulls players onstage for spontaneous game show-style antics with a bingo twist. Audience members shout. Players compete. The whole room gets sucked into the action. This is bingo as you've never seen it before and one thing's for sure: nobody will forget it.

A ADULT SPELLING BEE

You've never seen a spelling bee like this. Adult Spelling Bee takes the anxiety of 4th-grade spelling class, gives it a cocktail, and throws it into a room full of cheering adults. Teams compete in hilarious, multiple-choice spelling challenges, sometimes logical... sometimes the opposite! Not a good speller? Perfect. That's what makes this show so funny. Brett keeps the crowd roaring as teams try to avoid getting stuck with the Mega Light-Up Dunce Cap, which comes with a mandatory performance of the "Dunce Song", sung solo, and yes, with gusto. In between rounds, Brett roams the crowd for his crowd-favorite "Too Cool for School" Slang Challenge, where audience members get grilled on modern slang like "rizz" and "cheugy" and it's always extra hilarious when your boss is up there guessing.

👨👩 FAMILY FEUD-STYLE GAME SHOW

This fast-paced, laugh-out-loud game show puts teams head-to-head guessing the most popular answers to hilarious, custom-written survey questions. Brett keeps the energy flying with big reveals, rapid-fire rounds, and crowd reactions that spiral beautifully out of control. It's familiar, competitive, wildly interactive, and endlessly fun. Clean, customizable, and perfect for turning your audience into a room full of screaming experts.

😄 LET'S GET RIDICULOUS

What starts as a classic standup comedy show soon turns into something... very different. Let's Get Ridiculous is Brett Walkow's signature hybrid show, part standup, part audience adventure, and completely one-of-a-kind. Brett kicks things off with a high-energy, fast-paced comedy set about life, love, aging, dating disasters, and the absurdity of the human experience. But don't get too comfortable. This is not just a monologue. Soon, Brett is in the crowd asking real people about their worst first dates, turning stories into full-on comedy bits, or dragging volunteers onstage for impromptu games and unexpected challenges. One minute you're hearing about Brett's dentist. Next, you're watching Linda from accounting try to draw a horse while blindfolded. It's different every time. It's personal. It's interactive. And it's absolutely ridiculous in all the right ways.

🌐 THE WORLD'S MOST RIDICULOUS TRIVIA GAME SHOW

The World's Most Ridiculous Trivia Game Show is a full-scale production hosted by nationally touring comedians Brett Walkow & Dan Deibert, bringing a wild "Dean & Jerry"-style duo energy to the stage. The show features huge-screen trivia rounds, over-the-top foolish challenges, audience-wide competitions, in the audience Let's Make a Deal moments, flying ping-pong balls, sexy cat impressions, and so many prizes you'll start wondering if Santa works year round. All leading up to the mega "lightning round" finale with the audience cheering on 3 players running all over the room, this show is pure comedy chaos. Contestants get pulled onstage. The audience gets pulled into everything. And Brett and Dan bounce off each other like caffeinated game show gladiators. One moment you're laughing, the next you're trading your shoe for a prize. Will it be a Starbucks card? A whoopee cushion? A haunted doll from Brett's trunk? Who knows! It's the thrill of the unknown!

THE ULTIMATE AUCTION

This isn't a quiet paddle raise. It's a high-energy, fast-talking bidding spectacle built for pure fun and competitive chaos. Every player (or team) gets a stack of "capital" and dives into a rapid-fire auction packed with real prizes! Spend big early? Every decision sparks laughs, tension, and just the right amount of playful roasting as Brett turns bold moves and bad bets into comedy gold. Bidders might bet big on a digital horse race, jump into Let's Make a Deal-style madness, or crack open a mystery envelope that flips the entire game. The twists keep coming. The room keeps roaring.

It's the perfect experience for corporate events where you actually want to give away great prizes, especially holiday parties, appreciation events, and leadership meetings. Your team walks away with real gifts, huge laughs, and one unforgettable time.

HAPPYTOWN TRIBUTE ROAST

Looking for the perfect way to celebrate a person, a team, or an entire company? The HappyTown Tribute Roast is a custom-written comedy show that toasts and roasts your guest(s) of honor, with warmth, wit, and just enough ridiculousness to make it unforgettable. Brett works closely with you beforehand to get the scoop on the people being honored, inside jokes, quirks, fun facts, then spins it all into a personalized comedy performance that's always funny, never cruel, and deeply memorable. He blends stories from his standup act with spontaneous audience interaction and laugh-out-loud callbacks to create something truly unique. We've heard it again and again from clients: "That roast? We'll be talking about it for years." Because it's not just a show, it's a tribute. One filled with heart, hilarity, and just enough harmless embarrassment to make it legendary.

FAKE MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKER

Give your company something they've truly never seen before: a fake motivational speaker who slowly, spectacularly unravels. "UNLEASH THE BEAST: Embrace the Wolf Within" begins with Brett in full character as a keynote speaker from "Beyond Limits Lectures." Imagine TED Talk energy with the misplaced swagger of a guy who face-planted in a trust fall. He brings employees onstage for awkward trust exercises. Gets the entire audience to growl together in a "wolf awakening." At first, people are confused. Then suspicious. Then absolutely losing it. The best part? The show is meant to be fully customized around your employees, inside jokes, and real company quirks baked in. Brett works with you ahead of time to gather names, roles, fun facts, and fake credentials to drop throughout the performance making this show a tribute to your employees... in the weirdest way possible.

STAND-UP COMEDY SHOW

From 11 years at Harrah's Casino in Las Vegas to comedy clubs, corporate events, and theaters worldwide, for over 30 years, Brett Walkow has honed a stand-up show that's fast, fearless, and outrageously funny. Awkward first dates. Getting older. Family moments that make you question how you survived childhood. Life's little humiliations, stretched into epic comedy meltdowns. And here's the kicker: no two shows are ever the same. Brett feeds off the audience, riffing with people in real time and turning the night into a shared inside joke between him and the entire room. One second you're hearing about his dentist, the next he's 'having a serious chat' with Steve in the front row about his Hawaiian shirt, and the whole crowd is crying with laughter. This isn't a polite chuckle kind of comedy. This is fall-out-of-your-chair, clutch-your-stomach, "I haven't laughed like that in years" comedy.

EMCEE

With a voice like your favorite late-night radio DJ (smooth, warm, and impossible to ignore) and the wit of a nationally touring comedian, Brett brings instant charm, presence, and comedy to every stage. He doesn't just guide your event, he lights it up. Brett learns all about your company, brand, or mission ahead of time, then seamlessly weaves in custom humor, audience banter, and spontaneous riffs that keep the crowd engaged and genuinely enjoying themselves, from the opening welcome to the final mic drop. Whether it's a gala, multi-day conference, festival, or awards night, Brett doesn't just keep the train on the tracks, he makes the ride feel like a celebration. He makes you look good, keeps the audience locked in and laughing, and ensures your event flows like clockwork... with personality.

DJ BRETT
